Man Arrested After Damaging Police Vehicle

Date/Time: 11/01/2023 / 8:55 PM

Location: 600 E. Overland

Victim: City of El Paso

Offender: Jacob Payan, 20-year-old, San Elizario TX Resident

Offense: Criminal Mischief

Bond: $5000 Judge: Myers

El Paso, Texas – On November 1st, 2023 at approximately 8:55 PM officers of the El Paso Police Department responded to a call of a marked patrol vehicle that had been vandalized. Payan was observed by witnesses climbing onto the marked patrol vehicle that was parked at the 600 Block of E. Overland. Jacob Payan then jumped onto the front windshield causing the windshield to shatter and ran away after causing the damage to the windshield. Payan was located at the 200 Block of E. Mills and placed under arrest for criminal mischief. The investigation revealed Payan had just been released on a personal recognizance bond by Judge Acosta after officers from El Paso Community College had taken Payan into custody for theft of property. A warrant was obtained for Payan and he was booked into the El Paso County Jail with a charge of Criminal Mischief with a bond of $5000 signed by Judge Myers.
