Woman Arrested for Stealing an Ambulance and Evading from Police

Date: 07-02-2024

Time: 07:38 am

Location: 10301 Gateway West (Del Sol Medical Center)

Arrested: 28-year-old Humber Alasia Pamela, Central El Paso, Texas resident.

Charge #1: Theft of Vehicle >=$300K

Judge: Nunez Bond: $30,000.00

Charge #2: Evading Arrest or Detention w/ Motor Vehicle

Judge: Nunez Bond: $100,000.00

Vehicle: 2020 Whelen Ambulance valued at $330,000.00

El Paso, Texas— The El Paso Police Auto Theft Task Force was called out yesterday after a reported ambulance had been stolen from Del Sol Medical Center. The initial investigation revealed that Humber was at the hospital when she walked over and entered the ambulance in the ambulance bay. Humber then proceeded to drive away.

Upon receiving the theft report, a police alert was sent to all units to be on the lookout for the ambulance. At Emerson and North Loop, a motorcycle officer observed the stolen ambulance and attempted to stop it; however, Humber disregarded the officer and continued driving. Humber continued to evade police and other agencies, including state troopers from the Department of Public Safety. Humber eventually crashed into a rock wall at the intersection of Gateway North and Altura, disabling the ambulance. Humber was taken into custody without incident. No injuries were reported as a result of the incident. She was later transported to the El Paso County Detention Facility, where she was booked for the two listed charges.
